Thank you for your interest in the role of Deputy Head of College, Southwark region. I very much hope the information we have provided gives you an insight into our College, the organisation that the College is part of and what we are looking for in this Deputy Head of College post holder.

Orchard Hill College is an Outstanding specialist College (Ofsted, November 2019). The College offers life-changing opportunities to students with a range of abilities in the heart of their communities. The College is a unique and rewarding place to work with inspirational students and a dynamic and committed staff team.

The College operate out of eight centres across London and Surrey. The College are experts in the sector, leading the way with cutting edge, creative and innovative approaches.

All our students are individual and each course is as unique as they are. Our courses are centred around four study programmes which align to the Preparing for Adulthood outcomes and are designed to support and empower each student to achieve their aspirations and goals.

As Deputy Head of College you will liaise with Local Authorities within your region to build relationships and facilitate enrolments. You will have a key role in managing the personnel within the centres including multi-disciplinary teams to ensure a high performance culture and excellent student outcomes. This will include conducting performance appraisals and carrying out Teacher Evaluation Schedules (TES), for which training will be provided.

Orchard Hill College is an Academy sponsor of 14 Special Education Needs (SEN) schools and academies in London, Surrey, Sussex and Berkshire. To become an Academy sponsor, Orchard Hill College established Orchard Hill College Academy Trust in 2013. Together Orchard Hill College & Academy Trust provide for over 2000 pupils and students with a wide range of learning abilities and additional needs.

Working together to transform lives is what we do and across the whole organisation we have a range of experts and practitioners who advocate for children and young people with SEND to ensure they receive the best possible opportunities to achieve their full potential.

It is an exciting time to be Deputy Head of College and part of OHC&AT and we look forward to receiving your application. We would welcome and encourage you to visit us before applying.
